DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-25, 29, 30 and 32-38 are pending. Applicant cancelled claims 26-28 and 31.
2. The rejection from Paper No.17 mailed December 3, 2002 is withdrawn Pursuant to Applicant's Amendment and Response received August 8, 2003.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. Claims 1-25, 29, 30 and 32-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Martin et al., US 6,397,189.

Martin discloses a digitally distributed entertainment system that may accept payment for services where entertainment units 13 culling content from a master list 27 and a subset of the master list (a local list 93) that is distributed over a LAN from a host computer that comprises a wide area network (WAN) 11.

To have provided a personal computer having a graphical user interface connected to a WAN and LAN and download content from a master list for Martin would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art. Doing such would implement a content download from a well known graphical user interface system. Regarding the particular entertainment unit and peripheral devices, e.g. local memory device, the particular user interface and couplings, infrared readers, payment device, activity logs, would have been an obvious design choice for one of ordinary skill in the art as such components/technology were common knowledge at the time of Applicant's invention.

4. Further pertinent references of interest are noted on the attached PTO-892.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
